Mr. Lamar Woodward

Dear Mr. Lamar:

I have just heard that you will be leaving Tulane in June for the practice. We will miss you and your talents in the law library profession but I wish you much luck in your future practice.

I have just heard from Professor O'Neal that Professor Wayne Woody of Tulane will be in charge of arrangements for the S.E. Law Teachers Conference to be held in New Orleans August 24, 25 & 26 and had hoped that you would serve on the S.E. Chapter, AALL, local arrangements committee which will work with Professor Woody in coordination⁸⁶ the meeting.

As you will note from the enclosed memo I am asking Kate and Caroline to serve on this committee and would still like to ask you to do so as well. Could you possibly serve until your successor arrives and then, if feasible, transfer your duties as a member of the committee to (him)(her)? I would appreciate it very much.

Sincerely,

Sarah
